HONGKONG LAST WEEK

Out! What a busy week last week! I've hardly had time to breathe! I've spent my time dressing in a hurry to go out, and rushing back home to undress and dress again to go out yet again. Parties seem to be endless in Hong Kong, and have you noticed there's always something interesting to do or watch, though we do not have the conferences, the concerts, the shows and the theatres we have at home? I've been in Hong Kong for three years now, and I don't think I've had a single dull day!

POLO TOURNAMENT

I loved the polo last Friday. The Borderers played the Civilians and beat them 7-2. The spectators were very "select" the ladies looking all beautiful in their new autumn clothes. The atmosphere was distinctly friendly and gay as it always is when the Gunners are at home. I think they are such perfect hosts, and Col. Thom the most charming and the most perfect of all—at the end of the game, Lady Peel, looking extremely nice, in a lovely large hat, and pale frock, presented the "Koyll" Cup to Captain Philip Villar, the Borderers' skipper. I hear that Captain Villar is going home about Xmas. He'll be missed in his regiment, in polo circles and among his numerous friends—in addition to being a very good polo player, he is a charming man, with the most delightful manners. I always abuse of his kindness at the races, and pester him asking for tips.

THE RACES

By the way, in spite of several tips, I have again lost my double! I was lucky enough to back Navy Hall in the first leg, but then backed Frost on Adam in the second leg, and nearly fainted with despair when he arrived second, just behind King's Parade which paid a dividend of $548.50. Alas! Just imagine the things I could have done with that money! Though I don't think Adam would have paid as much.

The Naval Scurry was great fun. The officers drew for their ponies and knowing nothing about these jockeys, I backed the best pony and the most handsome jockey—apparently it was not a very brilliant idea—I didn't win.

It was a pleasant change to have naval bands, and thrilling to watch the model of the Victory. It's because of it that I backed Navy Hall for a win and it did win.

H. E. the Governor and Lady Peel arrived shortly after the Naval Scurry—Lady Peel was wearing the

London, Oct. 16.
A new British duration gliding record was set up at Sutton Bank, near Thirsk, to-night by Mr. John Laver, a member of the Dorset Gliding Club. Mr. Laver took-off at 11.45 a.m. and landed in heavy rain at 7.2 p.m., and thus beat Flying Officer E. L. Mole's record of 6hrs. 55min. by 27min.

When Mr. Laver landed he said he could not see the hill tops and the only guide was two rows of lamps. The flight was officially observed by Mr. J. L. P. Waplington, secretary of the British Gliding Association, and the record is subject to official confirmation.

GENERAL COHENS MOTHER

Knocked Down by Motor Van

(Special Air-Mail Service)

London, Oct. 10.
Mrs. Jane Cohen, (70), of 209, Bury New Road, Broughton, was yesterday knocked down by a motor-van in Bury New Road. She was taken to the Jewish Victoria Memorial Hospital, where she was found to be suffering from severe bruising. She will be detained for a few days for treatment.
Mrs. Cohen is the mother of General Morris Abraham Cohen, who has held high posts in the Canton Government. About a year ago General Cohen came to England specially to visit his parents.

A London undertaker attended a first night. He found he had been given accommodation high up near the proscenium.
"Look here, old chap," he complained in an interval to the manager, a friend of his, "I can hardly see anything from the box you've given me."
"You can see a d-d sight more than I shall see from one of yours," was the reply.

BY "NINA"

(who was Veronica Butterfield till only a few months ago) looking very sweet in white and red, and Mrs. Philip Gottwald, in white and blue, with a darling white beret, which had, as only adornment, a diamond regimental brooch. Who I thought looked also lovely in white and blue, was Mrs. Hill, whose husband is in the National City Bank of New York—she dresses always beautifully, with that particular American "chic" which I sometimes consider superior to the Parisian one.
The ladies who helped the Navy in selling flags, looked terribly attractive with their sailor's caps, well perched at the right angle—I particularly admired dainty little Heather Gerrard—the naval cap on her blonde lovely hair was the sweetest thing I have ever seen.

NAVAL DANCE

In the evening the Ball in the the Peninsula was very much "navy"—a few Army officers, a few civilians, and then all the Navy, "en bloc"—The women looked lovely—it seems to me they were all pretty that night—Everybody looked wonderfully happy, wonderfully gay, and people were still dancing at 3.30 a.m.—it's a pity there won't be another dance next Saturday!

But then it will be such fun visiting submarines and cruisers, destroyers and gunboats and aircraft carriers. I'll be taken out in the "Koppel" during the whole morning—I think H. E. the Governor will be in the Koppel (cul ma cher!) It will be most thrilling and I'll try to tell you next week all about it.

HELP FOR THE THIN GIRL And For Slimmers Who Have Overdone It

That any one in these days should want to put on flesh seems almost inconceivable to those who, by way of the trusty grape-fruit and lettuce leaf, are striving to take it off.

Yet to be too thin is as unattractive as to be too fat.

If you are one of those who want to gain weight, the first thing you must learn is not to worry and fuss unduly.

Nothing upsets the digestive organs so quickly as worry, and if the digestion is out of order it is almost impossible to put on flesh.

Rest as much as possible, and try to relax both mentally and physically.

Thin people are usually of the restless type, who burn up their energy. Sleep is as necessary to them as food, since only in this way can the nerves be soothed and the system restored to normal.

Eight hours' sleep a night is essential, and nine preferable.

Try, if possible, to put the feet up for a short while each day after lunch. Even a quarter of an hour is helpful, since it gives the digestion a chance to function quietly.

Diet is as important in gaining weight as in losing it. It must be arranged to include as much fat-making food as possible, without putting too great a strain on the digestion.

Milk nourishes quickly and soothes the system, and can be taken at intervals during the day, either alone or mixed with one of the malted drinks.

Eggs are fattening, and it is a good plan to have an egg beaten in milk at eleven o'clock each morning, thus getting a little concentrated nourishment between meals.

Butter and cream should be increased, but gradually, so as not to upset the liver.

An essential point is to eat slowly and to masticate each mouthful thoroughly. Only in this way can the food be entirely assimilated.

and oxygen to enrich the blood. Few people know how to take a really full breath. They use the top part of the lungs only, whereas they should start away down at the waist and draw in the breath in a great draught, as if fetching it up from the very toes.

This should be done several times every morning, immediately on rising, in the following way:—

Stand with the arms relaxed at the sides. Breathe in through the nose, expanding the ribs as you do so. Hold this breath for a few seconds, then slowly exhale through the mouth.

Repeat taking in the breath in three short movements, stopping between each one.

A discovery which is greatly worrying erstwhile slimmers is that while their figures have responded to reduction, their faces, necks, and shoulders have suffered as a result of it.

It comes as a shock when they look in the glass and see hollow cheeks, angles and bones, all of which add years to the age.

A trick that is too thin can be rounded by use of a special cream.

Mix together equal parts of lanoline, cocoa butter, and olive oil. Smooth this well in, with a downward movement towards the collar-bone.

Salad oil taken internally is excellent for filling out the face and improving the look of the skin, because it nourishes the underlying tissues.

A small quantity (about a dessert-spoonful) should be taken twice a day, immediately before meals. This can be made more palatable by a small sprinkling of salt, or if the thought of taking it alone is more than you can bear, it is a good plan to put an extra large quantity of oil on your salad.

Massage helps to fatten the face and should be done with a nourishing cream.

and mixing them with the leaves of a good sized lettuce.

Dress this salad with a plain French dressing into which you have mixed a few finely chopped nasturtium seeds, and decorate it as you will with the petals of the pretty flowers, which can, of course, be eaten, too.

DEEP BREATHING

One of the quickest ways of improving the "too-thin" condition is to do some deep breathing in front of an open window.

A body which is under-nourished requires an extra supply of air

CANNED MILK HAS PROTEIN

Scalloped Vegetables, Cream Soups
Add Food Value

The modern adult diet is too often lacking in milk. Especially true is this in a place like Manila where milk is not the food most easily obtained. This makes it necessary for the homemaker to devise particular ways and means to use milk in the daily dietary.

Fortunately there is a great variety of canned milk and milk powder on the market, so it need not be difficult to remedy such a diet defect.

Luncheon is an ideal time to introduce milk into the menu. A dish of this type usually precludes a meat dish and furnishes just the right touch of heartiness.

Cream soups, vegetables au gratin, creamed vegetables on toast and scalloped vegetables all lend themselves to luncheon menus.

If the adult members of a family are not at home for the noon meal, the dinner should be planned to make use of an extra amount of milk. Less meat is needed when milk is used generously.

There is no question that milk provides the best protein known to nature, so the housewife who uses a maximum of milk and a very small amount of meat need not feel that she is depriving her family of any essential food factor. The vegetable served scalloped or au gratin is of much greater food value than the one simply served with salt and butter and is suitable to serve when the meat course is light.

juices. Place your rib or loin roast in a dripping pan and baste it well with butter or meat fat. Set in the oven. Baste frequently with its own drippings. When partly done, season with salt and pepper; then dredge with sifted flour to give it a frothy appearance. Remove when done. Skim the drippings from all fat. Add a tablespoon of sifted flour, a little pepper and teaspoonful of boiling water. Boil up once and serve hot in a gravy boat. Seven or eight pounds require two hours.

Combine Nuts For Variety

USEFUL IN MAIN DISHES, AND ADD PROTEIN
TO BREADS

There are innumerable ways in which nuts may be used to add interest to other foods. Combined with vegetables, they make substantial main dishes. Added to salads and desserts, they do much to increase the nourishment of these courses. In bread, they are a valuable agent toward amending the protein deficiencies of the grains. Many an otherwise commonplace dish is enlivened by the addition of a few nut meats. Consequently, it plays to have some shelled nuts always on hand for emergencies.

When the meat course is light, this nut pudding will add many calories of food value to the meal.

SPARE-RIBS RICE NOODLES
This dish is very tasty and yet inexpensive.

Take one pound lean spare ribs, cut and separate into one inch lengths. Put in boiling water about five minutes, remove and put in a frying pan. Add salt and pepper and fry a good brown. Remove spare ribs from pan, empty the grease and clean the pan. Put the spare ribs in the pan, again add two table-spoons of Chinese sauce, one minced green pepper, three good sized sweet pickles and a little sugar. Fry a few minutes and add a little cornstarch dissolved in a little cold water. Let simmer for a few minutes more, then serve over rice noodles.

BAKED RICE NOODLES CHEESE
Instead of using macaroni, use rice noodles. Put the noodles in a baking dish that is coated with butter. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and paprika. Cover the top with grated cheese. Bake in a hot oven for 25 minutes.

OVEN HOT RICE NOODLES
For those who are too lazy to fuss with cooking, oven hot rice noodles may be bought and eaten with satisfaction, by adding a little Chinese sauce and pepper. Those who like sweets will find maple syrup or honey delicious over rice noodles.

ROAST BEEF
Beef
Flour
Salt and pepper
1 cup boiling water
Best cuts for roasting: tip or middle sirloin (for small family); back of rump (for large family); or first three ribs.

One essential point in roasting beef is to have the oven well heated when the meat is put in, as this prevents the escape of the juices.

FOR GREATER HYGIENE

Wrapped Bread

In England everyone who is not a child can remember when milk was delivered everywhere in cans or jugs. To-day sealed bottles are used even in the remotest villages. It seems highly probable that all bread will be protected likewise before long. Most bakeries these days are thoroughly hygienic and all bread is made under the supervision of the manager. In large bakeries he is assisted by qualified bacteriologists and chemists. When they leave the bakery therefore, the loaves are quite clean and whole, some, but once outside there is no further protection. They may come into contact with all sorts of impurities. Grease proof paper wrappings prevents this danger entirely. It has another advantage, the paper by eliminating moisture loss, considerably delays the staling process of the bread. In this country it is obviously to the housewife's hands to change this by the handwoven wrapped bread. We feel sure the ladies would enjoy their bread when they know it is treated in this hygienic manner.

Comfort

Home!
Be it never so humble—
Be it never so palatial—
There is always something which modern thought, skill, and progress can add to it.
—Something that will increase its beauty, its comfort, its convenience.
Home, as the long winter evenings draw near, begins to seem doubly desirable, restful, restorative.
Before the long nights are upon us make sure that you have in your home as much of modern comfort, convenience and beauty as you can afford.
A few ideas on the subject are presented in the displays at the various stores in town, and there are so many.

WHAT THE SMART WOMEN ARE WEARING

A Feathered Vogue

Feathers are finding their way into every part of the new season's wardrobe. The latest accessories to follow the feather vogue are gloves for wear with smart day clothes.
Glove fashions for autumn will be as fascinating and varied as they were during the summer. Gauntlets of shaded feathers border the coloured suede gloves worn with this belted frock, with the high collar buttoning up the neck.
The colours of the feathers are repeated in the handle of the umbrella, which is fashioned to represent a parrot's head and is covered with tiny, close feathers. The hat is also feather-trimmed.

MASSAGE

A good mixture can be made by putting a few drops of olive oil with the cream, and blending the two together in the palm of your hand.
Work this in with an upward movement, starting at the chin, and going out to the cheek-bones, and then out towards the ears. Now puff out the cheeks, as if blowing out a candle, and while they are distended, pat the cream in, forcing the breath out between the lips as you do so.
Olive oil, again is useful for fattening both round the collarbones and the bust.
Pour a little into a cup and stand the cup in boiling water. When the oil is warm, massage it into the skin with a rotary movement (very gently on the breasts, please). Wiping off the surplus grease, allow the rest to seep in during the night.

Some Cookery Notes

A FEW WAYS OF SERVING FISH FLESH MUST BE WHITE

If cod is selected the flesh should be very white and the skin a silvery colour. Head and shoulders should be thick.
Fish to be wholesome must be absolutely fresh, and so do not be tempted to buy anything which is much reduced in price.
To keep fish, take it out of the paper immediately, thoroughly cleanse it and thoroughly dry it. Put it on a dry dish. Sprinkle a very little salt over it and a few drops of vinegar.
Keep in a cool place until required for cooking.
For the usual salted cod this is the method of cooking. Lay it all night in water with a tablespoonful or two of vinegar. When required for cooking put in a fish kettle with just enough cold water to cover it.
ONLY SIMMER

The water should be heated very gradually, and it should never be allowed to boil fast—only just simmer—or the flesh will be tough. The water will need skimming from time to time, and if a slice of lemon is placed in the pan it will help to keep the cod white and firm. Some people like to wrap the fish in a piece of muslin to prevent it breaking.

About 3lb. of cod takes about an hour to cook. Before serving on the dish it should be drained on a clean kitchen cloth and served on the dish in a white table napkin.
It can be garnished with rounds of hard-boiled egg and slices of lemon, or a little watercress or parsley.

Egg sauce is the usual accompaniment.
Quite a number of people prefer hake as it is not quite so dry.

FISH PUDDING

For about 1lb. of fish—either fresh or previously cooked—1lb. bread-crumbs and 1lb. mashed potatoes and two eggs will be needed. If you like it fairly moist add some milk.
Flake cooked fish (or skin and chop it if it is raw). Season with salt, pepper, chopped parsley and onion. Mix all together.

Should you wish to bake it turn into a greased pie dish, dot some knobs of butter and dry bread-crumbs on top and cook in the oven. It can be steamed in a pudding basin.

To make it more fluffy and lighter, beat the yolks and whites of eggs separately before stirring in and add milk if too stiff.
It takes about an hour to steam and from half to three-quarters of an hour to bake.

PIQUE POPULAR

The newest and most popular material in Hollywood at the moment is pique.
Ellen Landi, who will soon be seen in "The Sign of the Cross" is wearing a double-breasted coat-dress trimmed with a small high pique collar and a pique flower.
Incidentally Miss Landi is startling people with her new evening gown. It is embroidered in an all-over pattern of beads and fits tightly to below the hips where a cascade of ruffles, breaks the line at the back. The same ruffles, edged in silver, are used over the shoulders.

PLANT

THE "SANTAPE" METHOD.

The plant consists of the most up-to-date and efficient mechanical apparatus, including a number of "SANTAPE" machines, which seal the tablets hygienically in specially prepared wax paper compartments. This system is known as the modern HYGIENIC "SANTAPE" method of packing, and because of its thoroughly protective properties, ensures that "ASPRO" retains its original high standard of purity. This should serve to commend "ASPRO" to all who appreciate the absolute necessity of purity in medicine.

The wonderful human-like "SANTAPE" machines are one of the most ingenious and highly developed engineering triumphs of modern times. The machines wrap the tablets with unerring regularity in waxed paper, divide the paper into separate compartments, crimp each compartment so that no air can find access to the tablet, fold the tapes, and finally pass them through sprays of paraffin wax, effectively sealing the "SANTAPE", and rendering the tablets proof against damp, moisture and any form of contamination.

ELIMINATION OF HANDLING

The "SANTAPE" method of packing has a distinct advantage over the crude and obsolete system of hand packing. At no time during the process of manufacturing, compressing and packing, do "ASPRO" Tablets come in contact with the human hand, therefore, contamination from this source is entirely prevented, the tablets reaching the consumer in the same perfect hygienic state as when they left the tabletting machines.

There are many thousands of people who now have sweet peaceful sleep, who hitherto hardly knew the meaning of a period of restfulness. "ASPRO" has brought about the transformation by its sweet soothing influence on the nerves, and breaking up of local feverish conditions. Two tablets before retiring is the usual dose.

PROCESS.

The production of Acetyl-Salicylic Acid in its really purest form is a difficult and expensive process, requiring the services of highly skilled chemists. The crude forms of this product contain free Salicylic Acid, which is expressly forbidden in the standards laid down by the British Pharmacopoeia, the guiding authority of the Medical Profession. The unskilled tablet maker may start with a pure drug, but by lack of the latest knowledge may turn out tablets containing free Salicylic Acid, liberated during the processes necessary to prepare the powder for compression. We make the following positive claim for "ASPRO" tablets. THEY ARE MADE FROM BRITISH MANUFACTURED ACETYL-SALICYLIC ACID, FREE FROM ANY TRACE OF FREE SALICYLIC ACID AND CONFORMING TO THE TESTS OF ALL KNOWN AUTHORITIES. THE TABLETS ARE MADE BY PROCESSES WHICH ENSURE THAT THEY ARE OF THE SAME STANDARD OF PURITY AS THE ORIGINAL DRUG, AND CONTAIN NO TRACE OF FREE SALICYLIC ACID. NO CHALK, TALC OR OTHER MINERAL IS USED AS AN EXCIPIENT WHICH IN "ASPRO" TABLETS IS A HIGHLY REFINED FOOD PRODUCT.

"ASPRO" makes positive, definite and clear claims that it will relieve an Influenza or Cold attack in one night and it proves it. You can prevent 'Flu' by taking 2 "ASPRO" Tablets at the first sign of a Cold and 2 tablets every three hours afterwards until the symptoms disappear; a hot lemon or whisky drink to be taken with the last dose before going to bed. It is advisable when taking "ASPRO" for Influenza and Colds to keep the body warmly clad in order to prevent chill. The value of "ASPRO" for Influenza was proved in Australia when the Pneumonic Influenza Plague ravaged the country, and the Federal Parliament proclaimed "ASPRO" a Necessary Commodity in the public interest.

Salads

LOBSTER SALAD.

Using canned lobster, take a can, skim off all the oil on the surface, and chop the meat up coarsely on a flat dish. Chop six hearts of celery; mix a teaspoonful of mustard into a smooth paste with a little vinegar; add yolk of one fresh egg; a tablespoonful of butter, creamed; a small teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, half a cup of vinegar, and the mashed yolk of two hard-boiled eggs. Mix a small portion of the dressing with the celery, and meat, and turn the remainder over all. Garnish with the green tips of celery and a hard-boiled egg, cut into thin slices.

FISH SALAD.

Take a fresh white fish, boil and let cool. Break in small pieces, removing skin and bones and add the same quantity of chopped cabbage, celery or lettuce; season the same as chicken salad. Garnish with the tender leaves of the heart of lettuce.

RUST.

During the summer months many people cycle to and from tennis, and rust marks are frequently caused through white flannels and tennis frocks coming into contact with parts of the bicycle. Such marks can be permanently removed by means of sour milk applications. The sour milk should be applied liberally to the rust marks until the affected area is saturated. Leave to soak for a time, and then, in the case of men's flannels, sponge the part with warm water and press carefully. Tennis frocks may be treated when soiled and then washed after treatment. All white garments can be treated successfully with sour milk.

A SUICIDE PACT?

Much excitement was caused in the neighbourhood of Holt's Wharf at about 6.45 p.m. last evening when two women who were returning on a Kowloon City-Hongkong ferry launch jumped overboard.
The launch turned round immediately and a police launch which was nearby rushed to the scene and rescued the women. They were both unconscious and when they were admitted to the Kowloon Hospital it was found that they were both in a very serious condition.

GOITER DECLINING

Iodized salt is succeeding in cutting down the amount of goiter among school children in the United States. Lack of iodine in the system will produce this unhealthy, unsightly condition. Since the iodine deficiency has been taken care of, epidemic goiter among school children has decreased from 38 per cent in 1924 to 2.1 per cent in 1931, according to authorities.

Archbishop Mowll On Way To New Diocese

Shanghai, Oct. 26.
Yesterday, there arrived in Shanghai from Chengtu the newly-appointed Archbishop of Sydney, who for the last seven years has been known as the Rt. Rev. Howard West Kilvington Mowll, Bishop in Western China. With Mrs. Mowll, who was formerly Miss Dorothy Martin, the daughter of a missionary, in Fokien, this Archbishop is on his way to England, whence he will sail for Australia to take up his new and important charge early in the New Year.
The Archbishop became the Assistant Bishop in Western China in 1925 and he was then only 32 years of age. As an Archbishop, he is therefore young and a fine standing figure of vigorous manhood, at that. Although he is leaving his beloved and sorely tried Szechuan with great regret, and although he modestly wonders why the Synod selected him for the Archbishopric, he is deeply moved by the possibilities of the new duties. He has a slight knowledge of Australia, for Mrs. Mowll and he spent a month there not so very long ago. It will not be his first experience of office in a Dominion, for he was for ten years tutor and finally Dean of Wycliffe College, Toronto.
He feels, too, that the many common interests of Australia and China may in some measure be well served by the knowledge which he and his wife can bring to Australia from their sojourn in Western China. On Australian problems he did not profess to speak, for he felt that their significance was still for him to grasp and understand. He spoke feelingly of China's difficulties and the amazingly rapid vicissitudes and variations in Szechuan, where one day the atmosphere in one part of that huge province might be troubled and distraught and the next calm and peaceful, while in another part the exactly opposite conditions in turn would obtain. Passing through Nanking on his way to Shanghai, he had been immensely struck by the sight of 50,000 Chinese athletes competing in the magnificently planned Stadium.
Ten years ago, that would have been impossible. Now it was clear that the spirit of sportsmanship and the cultivation of physical fitness were both the objects of Chinese solicitude. That could not but lay its mark on the people and help to brace up organized effort for conquering the difficulties which presented obstacles to progress.
The Archbishop and Mrs. Mowll are leaving Shanghai on Sunday.
Meanwhile, they are staying with their old friends, the Dean and Mrs. Trivett.

THE NIMROD
BIPLANES

For Navy Aircraft
Carriers

London, Oct. 2.
Fastest shipboard fighters yet commissioned for service in any of the world's navies, the "Nimrod" biplanes provided the spearhead of the defence of aircraft carriers and capital ships against aerial attack in the recent sea-air exercise held over a thousand square miles of the North Sea.
Carrying full load—and the shipboard aeroplane must lift considerably more fuel and navigational equipment than land-based craft doing similar work—the "Nimrod" attained in official test flights as long ago as October, 1931, a maximum level speed of 200 miles an hour. Its service "ceiling" or the height at which the rate of climb has fallen off to a hundred feet a minute, was 27,500 feet and it climbed to 20,000 feet above sea-level in a little more than eleven minutes. Power was derived from a Rolls-Royce "Kestrel" water-cooled motor, then rated at 480 h.p., detail improvements in design and increased power from the engine have since made available still better performance.
The "Osprey" is equally notable for high speed and general flying efficiency. Its maximum attainable speed is in the neighbourhood of three miles a minute, and its cruising range is more than five hundred miles. Both "Nimrod" and "Osprey" planes have been supplied to foreign governments as well as to the Fleet Air Arm, always abroad in the face of severe competition from foreign aircraft constructors.

ECHOES OF 1859

32.—Colonel Calne's Last Days In Hong Kong

MAY 12, 1859
One of our contemporaries states that Colonel Calne's retiring pension has been arranged and that he will be shortly relieved of his public duties. Our information is to the effect that the situation of Lieut. Governor is to be abolished and that Colonel Calne has been told no pension whatever will be allowed, except and beyond what he may induce the Legislative Council of the Colony to grant him. Furthermore we are told that even the Civil Superannuation pension is denied him, although he has contributed towards it for many years. It seems that no fund was set aside out of the contributions to this pension, and consequently there being nothing to represent it, the present ministers cancelled the whole affair on the principle that pension should go by merit and not by right.

The idea of the Colonel claiming anything from the resources of the Colony is about as ridiculous as could enter the mind of man.

He has been an incubus, a sore, and impediment ever since the first day he was thrust on the back of the Colony. He never said nor never did a good thing since he came here. It certainly would be an exquisite joke if we are made to pay for having borne such a load so quietly.

Now had Colonel Calne taken the same side in relation to the Prays that the three non-official councillors took and stood by the Colony as they did in advocating water works, the multitude of sins he hath committed would have been forgiven, and his career would have closed very differently. But no—he has persistently repudiated the principle that he was a public servant, and consistently acting under the conviction that the appointment he held had no virtue attached to it, beyond that of giving him a salary, he not only passively allowed all chances of developing the resources of the Colony to be lost, but he has always taken an active part in that contemptible system so prevalent here, of keeping public affairs secret, to the end that by gross misrepresentation, and culpable concealment, the Secretary of State for the Colonies might be deceived without a chance of being set right.

Advantage will be taken of Sir John Bowring's term of office having expired to separate the duties of superintendent of trade from that of the governor. The new governor will be Mr. Hercules Robinson who now holds the office of Lieutenant Governor of St. Christopher, West Indies.

END OF RADIO CONTROVERSY

U.S. And Japanese Agreements Cancelled

Nanking, Oct. 20.
With reference to the cancellation of the Sino-American and Sino-Japanese wireless agreements, officially announced on October 18, it is pointed out here that the cancellation formally closes a prolonged controversy, which formed a subject of discussion at the Washington Conference. The Ministry of Communications in the old Peking Government in 1921 concluded a loan agreement with the American Federal Wireless Corporation providing for the erection of a high-power wireless station at Shanghai, with less powerful installations at Peking, Hankow, Canton, and Harbin. The capital for the enterprise was to be jointly advanced by Chinese and American interests, the Chinese share being $8,500,000. The Chinese Government was to float bonds, the American company undertaking the underwriting.

As soon as this contract was signed, the Japanese Mitsu Company and the British Marconi Company protested claiming that the contract violated the terms of contract previously concluded with them. The Mitsu Company previously had made a contract with the Chinese Government and had erected a long-wave station at Shihwangchiao, between Peking and Tientsin, and had successfully tested it with the Bordeaux, Nauen, San Francisco, and Brewood stations at Urga in 1920, Tientsin in 1922, and Kashgar in 1923. As both sides refused to give ground, the issue remained unsettled, in spite of protracted negotiations.

Bonds Not Circulated

The American federal loan bonds were never circulated but were kept in custody at the Chinese Legation in Washington. Finally, with the consent of the American Treasury Department, the entire bonds were destroyed last month in Washington, under the supervision of Chinese and American representatives.

While the Mitsu and federal contracts have been ignored in the past few years, and new agreements have been concluded with the Radio Corporation of America and other wireless corporations, the formal announcement by the Chinese Government of their cancellation officially wrote "finis" to this chapter in Chinese radio history.—Reuter.

MUNITIONS BOOM IN JAPAN

Dearth Of Workers On Heavy Industry

Tokyo.
With the growing activity of industries concerned with armaments, the heavy industry in this country is enjoying improvement in its operations, which fact is reflected in the difficulty of securing skilled labourers already experienced in heavy industry circles.

As a result of the absorption of practically all unemployed efficient labourers, it is reported by the Kobe Municipal Employment Agency, no more experienced labourers can now be found out in the unemployment market, so far as it is concerned with heavy industry.

Such circumstances now force heavy industry factories to give up the engagement of experienced workers by converting their interest from it to the training of juvenile laymen, the organ re ports.

The wages of skilled labourers in the heavy industry is said to run around ¥3, while their actual incomes amount to more, as they work overtime nowadays.

Domestic servants are also reported to be enjoying a good demand, the Kobe Employment Exchange's figures indicate. In September, 355 were applied for while their total applications for employment were only 144.

The prosperity, however, is said to be very uneven when the poor percentage of employment for the intelligentsia class is taken into account. The average salary for the intelligentsia who got employment last month through the municipal organ was ¥33.07 a month.

Ein Career Of Vice-Admiral Descottes-Genon

Vice-Admiral Descottes-Genon who has just been appointed Commander-in-Chief of French Naval Forces in the Far East, has had a distinguished career. Born on May 2, 1876, he joined the Ecole Navale (Naval Academy) in 1897 and was promoted Rear-Admiral in 1922. He took part in the Szechuan campaign in China from 1900 to 1902 on board the French warship Redoutable and Alouette, after which he was sent to China for the second time in 1910 on board the French man-of-war Du-

SHANGHAI POWER COMPANY STRIKE

Loyal Clerk Kidnapped And Shot By Picket

Shanghai, October 21.
A sinister turn has been given to the strike of certain employees of the Shanghai Power Company, by the attempted assassination of a loyal clerk who has remained at his post at the Head Office since the strike began. He resisted all terrorist threats and attempts to induce him to organise a strike among the clerks.

Yesterday morning, three ringleaders of the strikers kidnaped him from a road in Nantao about 8.30 o'clock, while he was on his way to office. They took him in a private car to "Union" sub-headquarters in Nantao, where he was interrogated, threatened, and beaten.

Having engaged a hire car, his three assailants, escorted him through various roads in the French Concession and the Settlement, to a point in Chinese controlled territory half way between Yingyangkong and the C.J.C. grounds. One alighted, the others ejected him, and followed. They dismissed the machine, and forced their victim to a field, where, without more ado, one of them drew a pistol and shot him.

One bullet entered above the heart, the other in the groin. They decamped. Sometime later farmers found him in a semi-conscious condition.

Critical Condition

They placed him in a rickshaw and escorted him to the Settlement boundaries, where they wished to transfer their wounded man to a vehicle with a Settlement licence. A police radio van came on the scene and took him to the Sacred Heart Hospital. His condition was pronounced critical. At the time of going to press it was reported the man might last the night, but there was little hope for him.

This was the climax to a definite campaign of terrorism which in the last week is stated to have led to the beating up of loyal employees—many of whom have arrived at work with terrible marks of their sufferings but, owing to the danger of their position, have not been permitted to give information for the purpose of tracking down their attackers. The Company has been able to give shelter and maintenance to those employees who have been ready to come into the International Settlement to avoid the daily ordeal of running the gauntlet of the strike pickets, whose methods have now developed into a violence which cannot be ignored. There are now about 1,600 men out on strike and the strike has behind it no formally expressed grievance and no specific cause. The Shanghai Power Company has been able to secure the sympathy and support of all authorities responsible for the preservation of law and order in Shanghai.

Radical Leaders Active

The Government at Nanking is understood to have decided positively its disapproval of the strike and to appreciate the fact that the treatment of the Company's employees is such that the strike leaders cannot possibly be given any rope, otherwise the whole fabric of the industrial life of Shanghai will be undermined. The local Tangpu has shown a benevolent interest in the efforts of the radicals who have engineered this dispute, but it is believed to have become apprehensive of the exact trend of events. Failing in the subscriptions to the workmen's feeling that unions which did not strike were not worth supporting. Thus the dangerous game—now so familiar—was begun. The driving force was really in the hands of a small group of radicals who have been working quietly within the Power Company's labour for several years. It is believed that the strikers are drawing something like 40 cents a day as strike pay, yet the large majority are disposed to come back to work and only the terrorist technique of the organisation in whose clutches they now are has stood in the way.

Significance Realized

The Shanghai Municipal Police have been given the Power Company the protection and assistance demanded by the situation. The authorities of Greater Shanghai, as already recorded have done their best to induce the strikers to come to a reasonable frame of mind. This new development will undoubtedly raise acutely the question of the preservation of the whole community against the danger of a subversive movement of the gravest potentialities.

Company's Statement

The Shanghai Power Co. in having issued a statement in the course of which they say:—After a reign of terror by beatings, bombings, and finally by an armed attack in broad daylight, the pressure of intimidation is being waged by radical labour leaders.

It is to be hoped that the public will finally realise that the industrious and honest labourers of the Company have for a long time before this strike been forced by threats of violence to give up part of their hard earned pay to radical strike leaders so that strike leaders could live in luxury without work.

The Company recognises its responsibility to the public to maintain its service upon which the law, order, and industries of this port are wholly and partly dependent. The service has and will be maintained but it cannot allow terrorists and murderers to have access to its plant and equipment.

It is not a struggle between employer and employee. It is a struggle between honest, conservative labourers and radical leaders—a unequal struggle in which the radicals are armed and desperate. Moral support by the public and reliance upon facts will greatly aid the restoration of peace.

INQUEST ON CONVICT SUICIDE

Jury Find: "Police Search Quite Thorough"

THE CORONER'S CRITICISM

"So far as I can see, prisoner was entirely responsible for his own death, and there is no evidence that he was of unsound mind or suffering from any disease that would make his mind unsound. From his statement it is clear that he was determined not to serve a prison sentence, and so far as my experience goes, I cannot remember a similar case."

With these words, Mr. Schofield summed up the inquiry that was held into the death of one Yam Wai, who died as the result of a dose of self-administered arsenic poisoning in Victoria Gaol on October 17.

It will be recalled that the deceased was sentenced to a term of six months' imprisonment in connection with a breach of the Opium Ordinance and while waiting in the Prison Reception room to be taken into the cell, he took a fatal dose of arsenic which he managed to smuggle into the gaol.

The jury which comprised Messrs. G. A. Harriman (foreman), W. E. Winston and C. L. Gate returned a verdict of "Suicide" without retiring. They added the rider that they considered the police conducted the search quite thoroughly.

THE ANALYST'S EVIDENCE

Mr. V. C. Branson, Government Analyst, who was recalled yesterday said:

"At 2.55 p.m. on the 18th inst., I received four sealed jars from Dr. Griffiths and these were stated to be some of the post mortem material from prisoner 15,889. There was a covering note which said that the symptoms before death were consistent with arsenic poisoning, and the doctor wanted to know if arsenic was present in the specimen submitted, and if so, was there enough of it to cause death."

"In each of the specimens submitted, Mr. Branson said he found very strong reaction of arsenic and up to the present he had isolated arsenic up to 97 grains."

Concluding, witness said that in the normal course of events, two or three grains would be enough to cause death while there were some cases on record where adults had been known to die after absorbing only two grains."

Dr. Griffiths of the Victoria Gaol Hospital, who was also recalled, said that having heard Mr. Branson's evidence, he was satisfied that death was due to arsenic poisoning and that the post mortem finding would be in keeping with the statement made to him from the reception room warder that the prisoner had taken a dose of poison."

In The Reception Room

"I was on reception room duty on the day in question when the prisoner was taken in by a Chinese Revenue Officer," said Assistant Indian Warder Bhagda Singh who went on to say that Warder Cornwall was also present at the time.

Witness said that prisoner had a sack with him and when asked what it contained, replied that it was clothing. A search revealed that this was the case.

Warder Cornwall also took a look at the sack and while he was doing this, witness checked the warrant, and when he found that this was in order, he handed it over to the European Warder and then went out to receive other prisoners.

"I was just nearing the door," witness said, "when I heard Warder Cornwall shouting, 'come back quickly.' I returned to the room and saw the man lying on the ground and the Warder told me that prisoner had taken poison. As soon as I heard this I telephoned to the doctor who came in a minute and prisoner was sent to the prison hospital."

Witness added that when the prisoner was admitted to the gaol, he was moving his mouth as though he were eating something.

The Coroner: Did you see anything found in his hand or his person? Yes, Warder Cornwall found a small piece of stone in his jacket pocket.

Prisoner's Distress

Warder Cornwall said that at about 11.50 p.m. on 17th inst. the prisoner was brought into the reception room in the gaol by a Chinese revenue officer.

When the prisoner was admitted, he brought with him a sack of clothing. "I thought I saw him eating something," witness went on, "and I told him to stop his eating as there would be good chow for him in gaol."

After the usual formalities were over, witness said he passed the prisoner through the grille but he had hardly seated himself when the Indian warder came in to say that he was ready to take prisoner into his cell. Warder Cornwall went on to say that before the man went out he went through the latter's pocket and found some money and two watches.

"I had only just made the entry in the prisoner's property book when the man walked away," witness said. "I think prisoner looked very distressed and he asked for a drink of water. This was given him."

MURDER TRIAL AT SESSIONS

Woman Killed at Sha Po Village

ROBBERY OR JEALOUSY?

Committed last month by Mr. E. H. Williams at the Tai Po Magistrate's Court on the charge of murdering a Chinese woman in the village of Sha Po on the night of August 6, Fok Kan, a Chinese earth cooler, through his Counsel, yesterday entered a plea of "Not Guilty" when brought before the Chief Justice at the Criminal Sessions.

He was formally arraigned on the following two charges:—that he on August 6, at Sha Po, with others not in custody, did murder Lau Fa; and that he, with Pang Ngu Shing, on the same day wounded Chan Shing with intent to murder him.

Mr. J. A. Fraser, Assistant Attorney General, prosecuted, while Mr. Leo D'Almada, a Castro junior was for the defence.

The jury was as follows:—Messrs. D. Marshall (foreman), W. J. Woolley, J. L. Robinson, J. D. Frovan, S. A. Sweet, L. G. Rosario, and I. N. Murray.

In opening the case Mr. Fraser said that Chan Sing, prisoner's employer and Lau Fa, the murdered woman, were engaged in planting rice and were assisted by prisoner, who was paid from money taken by Lau Fa from her girdle. Chan and the woman slept together in a sampan. At 3 o'clock in the morning Chan found himself being attacked by a man with a chopper whilst prisoner stood at the other side of the sampan. Chan scrambled out of the boat and ran for his life along the mud. He had been so severely injured that he fell down a short distance away whilst his assailant continued to strike him. Meanwhile Chan's daughter, who had been sleeping in a nearby matchbox, ran out on hearing her mother's cries and saw her father being attacked whilst accused conducted a search of the sampan. Au So, another inhabitant of the matchbox then came out and blew a police whistle which brought two Indian constables to the scene.

The men ran off and Lau Fa was found to be dying of her injuries and Chan was so badly wounded that he had to be taken immediately to the Kowloon Hospital where he remained for six weeks. The woman's girdle was missing from her body.

Prisoner's Denials

Prisoner was captured a few weeks later and gave evidence at the Tai Po Magistrate's Court denying the murder and attributing it to a companion named Pang Nga-shing. He admitted being with Pang for five hours before the assault but said he did not know what Pang's intentions were when he accompanied him to the sampan. Pang dealt the blows with some instrument he held in his hand and said while striking the woman "She is the wife of a friend of mine. I will kill her."

Evidence Called

Dr. J. B. Mackie, of the Kowloon Hospital, said the woman had 11 wounds on the head which was fractured in several places. The brain was lacerated and death must have ensued within a short time of the assault from the head injuries and fractures.

Chan Sing was in a dangerous condition for several days after admission to the Hospital, and was suffering from multiple injuries, apparently caused by the weapon used against the woman.

Evidence of plans and photographs was given and a model of the sampan and matchbox mentioned in the case were also produced.

YACHT CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

Premises As R.N.V.R. Temporary Headquarters

CLUB NEVER IN HEALTHIER CONDITION

"This Club was founded in 1889 and has never been in a healthier condition than it is to-day," said Mr. A. L. Shields, Commodore of the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club at their Annual Meeting which was held at the Club House yesterday.

There was a good attendance of members, and the Committee's report together with the Club's accounts revealed a very healthy state of affairs.

With regard to the reclamation at North Point, the hope was expressed by Mr. Shields that the Government would allow the Yacht Club to stay on their present site until a permanent site was available for them.

In referring to the proposed R.N.V.R. the Commodore said he hoped the new premises would be near the Units Headquarters (temporary headquarters would be at the Club) as they expected many members in common.

PROBLEM OF A NEW SITE

Mr. A. L. Shields, the Commodore of the Club, said:—The balance of income over expenditure is $1,066.33, as compared with $2,063.93 for the previous year. We have, however, debited expenditure account with $800.80, the cost of re-laying the bowling green, which is non-recurrent, and with the increase in the number of yachts, yachting expenses are up by $471.85. The Library donation was increased by $100 and you will notice increases in opening and closing cruise expenses and a larger figure for depreciation on boats, gear, etc., than we had last year.

On the credit side, bar profit is a little lower, but subscriptions are up by over $300. The item, "Mooring Fees," disappears, on account of the moorings being displaced by the reclamation now in progress. A grant of $400 towards expenses was made to the Interport, rowing, crew, which visited Manila, but this was partly met by the profit on the Yacht Club Dance, leaving a debit of $122.52, as compared with a dance account profit of $67.31, last year. The Balance Sheet, I think, needs very little comment. We have written off the value of gymnasium gear, $108.25. Our investments were sold at a small profit before the end of the financial year, which increased our cash balance to $11,408.35. A considerable part of this sum has since been re-invested.

Mr. Fleming is standing by, to give any further explanation of the accounts, which members may require.

On behalf of the Club, I wish to thank the Honorary Auditors, Mr. H. R. Forsyth and Mr. T. A. Martin, for auditing the accounts.

THE "R.N.V.R."

The Report of the General Committee, also those of the Sailing, Rowing, Bowls and House Committees and the report of the Honorary Librarian, deal very fully with the Club's activities and there is very little for me to add.

The numbers of new Members and Subscribers during the past year has been very satisfactory, and with the proposed alteration in our Articles of Association, I hope to see an increase in the number of Lady Subscribers.

The Club facilities are always at the disposal of the Navy and Army, for Sailing and Rowing Matches, and I am glad to say they are constantly being availed of.

The proposed formation of a Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, made an instant appeal to many of our members, and I feel sure you will enthusiastically endorse the action of your Committee, in offering the club premises as temporary Headquarters.

The Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, will I hope, be a "fait accompli" before long, and when we move to a new site, I trust that the permanent Headquarters of the Division, will be as near to us as they can safely get, (as it is expressed in Charter parties, because we should always have a large membership in common.

THE NEW SITE

All I can say about a new site is that one has been earmarked for us, but "The bird is still in the bush." I hope Government will be able to let us stay here, until a new and permanent site is available, to avoid a double shift, with the consequent drain on our finance and inconvenience to members.

There will be a good deal of discomfort and difficulty, in carrying out our Sailing and Rowing programmes during the next year or so, but I hope Members and Subscribers will discount these, and back up the Flag Officers and Committee, in their efforts to carry on the work of the Club, in providing healthy exercise and recreation.

This Club was founded in 1889 and has never been in a healthier condition than it is to-day. (Applause.)

The number of yachts continue to increase, and we have so many races and matches to provide for, that the season from November to April is fully taken up.

The work of the Committees, and particularly of the Honorary Secretaries, continues to increase, and our thanks are due to the joint Hon. Secretaries of the General Committee, the Sailing and Rowing Secretaries and the Secretaries of the Bowls and House Committees. I would also express thanks to Mrs. Rouse, The Honorary Librarian, for looking after our books, periodicals and Scrap Books, and for her generous contributions to Library Funds. (Applause.)

I beg to propose, that the Report and Accounts for the year ended 31st August, 1933, as presented, be passed and adopted, and when that has been seconded, I will endeavour to answer any question arising out of the Report and Accounts, which Members may wish to ask.

The report and accounts were duly adopted after it had been seconded by Major R. G. Lochner.

Hon. Secretaries:—Messrs. R. J. Vernal and M. I. De Ville.
Treasurers:—Messrs. Lowe Bingham and Matthews.

Under cross-examination by Mr. D'Almada, Chan said that the woman who was murdered was the wife of another man, but he had paid $80 towards the marriage ceremony. He had seen her husband after his own marriage to the woman and had lent him money from time to time.

Witness said that he knew the father of the husband of the woman who lived with him as his wife. He told Mr. D'Almada that he did not know that Pang Nga Shing was a relative of the woman's husband.

After evidence had been given by the daughter of the deceased woman, the case was adjourned until this morning.

THE FRENCH POLITICAL CRISIS

It is impossible to feel much alarm at the French ministerial crisis. "Our vital duty is the defence of the franc and French soil," said the President of the Senate, and those objectives will be obtained, whatever group of ministers happen to be in power. The strength and the stability of France are expressed in the country's determination to remain on the gold standard, and the fact that there has been no necessity to form a National Government with dictatorial powers, and no political opposition. In Germany and Japan, Italy, Austria and even Britain an alternative to the present Governments is impossible without confusion and loss of credit and confidence. France has no indispensable. The political groups shuffle the ministerial portfolios, Premiers come and go, but France goes on steadily, an immense and efficient bureaucracy holding the real power and governing the country.

This is not to say that the Republic is not faced with difficulties, and some form of more, stable ministry, on the lines of those under George Clemenceau during the War, and Raymond Poincaré in the time of the financial crisis, may not be formed. Time brings its changes and Reuter mentions, M. Calliaux as a possible successor to M. Daladier. M. Calliaux's record is an unhappy one, but he is admittedly a great expert on finance, and it is a financial crisis that faces the Republic to-day. His succession would not be more strange than the careers, in British politics, of the late Joseph Chamberlain, Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, and in Germany of President Hindenburg.

The situation calls for drastic measures. The French budget for 1934 estimates for some fifty milliard francs. Of that nearly half is sacrosanct, being earmarked for internal debts and military expenses. The expected deficit is six milliards, though actually it may be higher, owing to the expected deficit on the current year, and the falling off of certain revenues. Taking the optimistic view some six milliards have to be cut off from rather under thirty milliards. The Deladier proposals, which include a cut in the salaries of civil servants by six per cent, have been rejected, and the problem of his successor is either to find a more attractive suggestion or, else put forward more convincing arguments for the present policy.

French people have a reputation abroad for being bad taxpayers. This is hardly borne out by the sequel to 1870, when largely by the splendid generosity of the landed peasantry the indemnity was paid, and the army of occupation consequently withdrawn, in a way that staggered foreign opinion. Equally M. Poincaré saved the franc and obtained the money he wanted. No one likes paying taxes, but the French are by no means behind other peoples when financial patriotism is the need of the hour.

There are rumours of inflation, but the French people know the meaning of that too well. Better taxes than a further levy on capital by reducing the value of the franc. Nor does the raising of another loan appear to offer a way out. Reduction of armaments is unthinkable, and if M. Calliaux should be offered the Premiership no doubt adequate pledges on that score will be demanded. As far as can be seen the Minister of Finance will be driven back on something very close to the present proposals, which were only rejected by a majority of two. However, if a Government gets a country into a tight corner financially, the only thing it can expect is dismissal, even if the disaster were unavoidable, and the accepted remedy has been devised and advocated by its own members.

INTERNATIONAL
TIN AGREEMENTTo Be Signed in London

London, October 25.

The "Financial Times" reports that well-informed Dutch quarters anticipate that a new international tin agreement will be signed in London on Friday, raising the output under the quotas to forty per cent.

The agreement will run for three years from January 1.

Indo-China is reported to be joining the scheme and negotiations have been opened with the Burmese and Chinese Governments.

The new quotas will take account of the actual tin content of ore shipped from each country.

If outside countries produce during six consecutive months twenty-five per cent of the estimated world production, each signatory will be entitled to withdraw from the agreement on giving six months' notice.

The same quarters informed the "Financial Times" that there was no fear of a sudden tin shortage.

TRIANGULAR CRICKET
TOURNAMENTPersonnel Of The Malayan
Team

(From a Special Correspondent)

Singapore, October 21.

The Malayan cricket team that is visiting Hong Kong at the end of this month, although lacking the services of one or two of the best bats in the country to-day, is generally regarded as a sound and well-balanced side fully capable of maintaining the high tradition associated with the triangular tournament in Hong Kong.

As was announced last week the following have accepted the invitation to travel issued by a special committee that was appointed to select a team from all State and Settlement players throughout Malaya, of which there are six senior combinations:

D. C. Burn (Singapore C.C.).
W. O. Jonklaas (Perak State).
R. O. Gibson (Penang C.C.).
R. N. Hamilton (Singapore C.C.).

FL. Lieut. Croome (Singapore Garrison).
G. Willis (Singapore Y.M.C.A.).
L. Alvis (Singapore R.C.).
Fu Chow Tek (Penang C.C.).
L. A. C. Morgan (Singapore Garrison).
C. A. Speldewinde (Perak State).

B. S. Gill (Selangor State).
N. Bewicke (Johore State).

An effort is made in giving the names as above to forecast the order of batting judged from the order in which they play in their own teams, but it will of course depend entirely on the discretion of the captain at the time of batting.

Mr. W. W. Dean who travels with the team as umpire has for many years been one of the best umpired bowlers in the country, and was a contemporary of the redoubtable Dr. Hennessy, well-known to Hong Kong cricketers, who was responsible for the defeat of the Oldfield-Macartney Australian team that visited Malaya in 1927. Hennessy retired two years ago but Dean still turns out for his club and is as effective as ever, so should there be any casualties in the side—which nobody apprehends—he should be a useful stop-gap.

The Players.

Coming to the players, Hamilton was a name to conjure with until a couple of years ago since when he has not turned out as often as he did owing to the lure of golf but on every occasion he did play this season he showed that mastery of the game which gave him the largest number of hundreds in local cricket. He is an experienced skipper and well-known to Hong Kong players, having been a member of previously visiting Malayan teams. Two veterans in the side are W. O. Jonklaas, captain of the Perak State eleven for many years, and C. A. Speldewinde a member of the same side. Both these men hail from Ceylon and are all-rounders, sound batsmen of the patient but punish-the-loose-ball type, and good fieldsmen near in. But their best work this year has been with the ball. Jonklaas is a fast medium bowler who varies his attack with judgment and having up his sleeve one deadly low one from leg with a deceptive swerve.

Speldewinde, on the other hand, is a patient and tireless worker, always scheming with his left-hand slowly to tempt his man out and then trapping him with a curler that invariably succeeds even with the most familiar batsman who knows his wiles. Speldewinde invariably bowls right through the innings being very consistent and steady as nothing perturbs him. He is one of the liveliest batsmen between the creases.

Croome and Burn have played a lot of cricket this season for the Singapore C.C., where the game is so popular that they have a tournament of their own. This and another knock-out competition in the State of Selangor form the only tournament cricket in Malaya. Burn is an opening batsman and when set develops very aggressive methods, scoring mostly on the leg side.

Gibson is one of the most reliable batsmen in Penang where he has made some big scores this season including a hundred against a powerful bowling side a few weeks ago.

Fu Chow Chye, another Penang batsman, is sound in defence as well as aggressive. He ranks with the three best Chinese players in Malaya and has figured in the Settlement side during the past two seasons.

It is, however, upon two new colts that not a few pin their faith in the coming encounters in Hong Kong. These are Willis and Alvis, both hailing from Singapore. Willis is a strapping youngster who took Singapore by storm this season when he compiled a series of centuries for the Y.M.C.A. against senior clubs. He suffered a temporary set-back by a brief illness a little time ago but is himself again. He is a powerful hitter all round the wicket, possesses a good eye and exercises much judgment in varying his methods between attack and defence as the game proceeds.

In Alvis the side possesses the most promising player of the younger generation in Malaya who has done outstanding work in senior cricket this season. His fielding is a treat to watch whether in the slips or outfield and he is

FRENCH TRAIN
DISASTERNineteen Passengers
Killed

London, Oct. 25.

NINETEEN passengers and the engine-driver and fireman were today killed in a disaster to the French express proceeding from Cherbourg to Paris.

The disaster occurred when the train was crossing a viaduct and the engine and tender fell into the water below while eight coaches were overturned.

The fortunate feature of the tragedy was that the engine did not drag the coaches down with it to destruction. In this event the death-roll must have been much heavier.

As it was, many persons were injured 11 seriously, and they were detained at Evreux Hospital. It is understood that no English or Americans were among the casualties.—British Wireless.

very fast in retrieving a ball. Batting with easy grace he is a consistent scorer and has played many a breezy innings. But some of his best work has been done with the ball—a fast medium bowler with deceptive delivery the keeps low, breaking both ways.

Gill, a brother of Lail Singh of Indian Test cricket fame and just gone to India, has been the best bowler in Selangor for some seasons and never fails to get his wickets on any pitch. It will be no surprise to see Gill do some outstanding work in this tour.

Bewicke is a fast bowler of the Larwood type who is very effective on a wet wicket. Playing in an inter-State match not long ago he accounted for seven batsmen at a cost of one run apiece.

It will thus be seen that the Malayan side is well found in every department of the game and is likely to prove the best bowling side out of the three sides in this tourney. Their first sting in attack will probably be Gill, Bewicke and Alvis (fast-medium); with Speldewinde, Jonklaas and Hamilton to do the slow stuff.

Had the side been strengthened by Reed of Perak, who recently made the highest individual score in Malayan cricket, and Dr. H. O. Hopkins the finest bowler and bat of Singapore, Malaya would to-day have little doubt of the issue at Hong Kong. Though regret is felt at the inability of these men to travel it is felt that those who form the touring team are capable of maintaining the standard of Malayan cricket especially as the majority of them are young and full of promise and eager to win their spurs in overseas cricket which so seldom falls to the lot of Malayan players.

The man was bound over as it was his first offence.

A fine of $10 was imposed on each charge while defendant was also ordered to pay the coolie $20 compensation.

GOLD TANGLE IN AMERICAFarmers Still Want Inflation

Washington, October 25. There is speculation over the premium which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will pay for the first purchase of newly mined gold. To-day it ranges twenty cents to six dollars.

To-day's transaction is described as a trial run, some Treasury experts are reported to be uncertain as to the workability of the President's plan, doubting as to whether there is any exact relationship between the gold price and the commodity price level.

Experts are also asking what would happen should France abandon the gold standard and other countries depreciate their currencies in terms of gold. The Congress group of farm industrial representatives, headed by Senator Thomas the leading inflationist, endorsed the gold plan but forwarded a resolution to Mr. Roosevelt urging him to supplement the plan by currency inflation and the remonetization of silver.

The future fate of over $3,000,000,000 (three milliards) held by the Federal Reserve banks is perturbing Wall Street because the Reconstruction Corporation is legally entitled to purchase the metal at the statutory price of $20.67 per ounce, though the world price is 50 per cent higher. Such reports are discredited par officials.—Reuter.

CANADIAN NICKELGermans Buying Heavily

Ottawa, Oct. 25. A REPRESENTATIVE of the Ig Farben Industrie arrived here yesterday. He is authorized to purchase large supplies of Canadian nickel. The representative states that his firm is sponsoring a new process for refining nickel. A total of 513,000 cwt. was exported in the first six months of 1933, as compared with 125,000 cwt. in the same period 1932. Exports to Germany which last year totalled 2,557 cwt. have been doubled.—Reuter.

ROOSEVELT TO STUDY SILVERHopes it may be on Same Footing as Gold

Washington, October 25. Having embarked upon a gold-plan Mr. Roosevelt, according to sources described as usually well-informed, is expected to devote his attention immediately to silver. Congress advocates that silver remonetization is indicated as the President is in close touch with the silver question and consultations will be held soon to formulate a definite programme.

Senator Pittman stresses the urgency of the silver problem with the United States about to over bid gold buyers in international exchanges. Other silver men are reputed to be hopeful that the Administration will fix the silver price at ninety cents per ounce, thus placing silver on the same footing as gold under Mr. Roosevelt's gold-plan.

Mr. Roosevelt favours helping silver, but is reported to be uncertain as to the best method to tackle the subject.—Reuter.

JAPAN AND THE SOVIETRussians Must Quit The Far East!

The "Harbin Times" puts the "issue" very simply, declaring that unless the Soviet discontinues her present Far Eastern policy, quits Siberia and withdraws to the Ural Mountains, Japan must safeguard her own security and at the same time release the inhabitants of the Far East from their "hellish sufferings."

If the Soviet Government increases her Far Eastern activities, the journal adds, Japan must take decisive measures and, sword in hand, strike a decisive blow against Soviet aggression.—Reuter.

DISPUTE OVER DEMURRAGE

And A Pilot's Responsibility

A novel point has arisen in connection with a claim for pilotage. A steamer was proceeding to Hopewell, Virginia, to load nitrates for the French Atlantic, and was ahead of a Swedish vessel bound to the same port. The former arrived in Newport Roads at about 6 p.m., and in arranging with the Virginian Pilots' Association for the necessary pilotage, the master was informed that no pilot would undertake to start the passage up the river except in daylight. As it was then dark, the pilot was accordingly ordered for 5 a.m. next day.

The master afterwards found that the Swedish steamer, which had proceeded up-river during the night and also arrived at Hopewell ahead of him. As there was only one berth, the master lost 2 1/2 days, which, at the demurrage rate, would represent about 375 dollars.

The owners, feeling that they had a grievance against the Pilots' Association, refused to pay the pilotage of 175 dollars, and instructed their local agents to institute proceedings against the Association for damages arising out of the negligence of one of their pilots in not obeying the regular rules of the Association.

The Association counter-claimed for the fees, but the matter was ultimately dropped on the pilots and the owners agreeing to withdraw their claims, the owners thus establishing their point that the pilots are responsible in the circumstances.

LONDON FINANCE NOTES

(Special Air-Mail Service)

FIEM COMPANY'S RE-CONSTRUCTION

Good progress has been made in the last two and a half years by the British and Dominion Film Corporation. For the year ended October 23, 1933, there was a trading profit of £27,113, comparing with £50,660 for the previous year, and in the six months ended April 29 last the company made a trading profit of £38,836. The change over from silent to talking films has, however, left the undertaking with a legacy of £148,379 in the shape of past revenue deficits, and in order thoroughly to clean up the balance-sheet a total writing down of £224,340 is considered necessary.

Hence the board is submitting a scheme of reconstruction, which if carried through should facilitate the raising of the fresh capital that is stated to be urgently needed for financing the company's activities.

The issued capital consists of £248,120, in Ten Per Cent. Participating Preferred Ordinary shares of 1s. each, and £51,000 in Deferred shares of 1s. each.

The proposal is to reduce the nominal value of each Preferred share from 10s. to 5s. and to reduce that of each Deferred share from 1s. to 5d. Afterwards the two classes are to be consolidated into one issue of Ordinary capital, the nominal issue amount of which will be £74,780.

The directors state that when the scheme has been carried into effect they will feel justified in proceeding with the steps necessary to obtain the additional finance required to place the company upon a sound basis as regards the future.

SIR HERBERT AUSTIN'S CONFIDENCE

In addressing shareholders of the Austin Motor Company yesterday Sir Herbert Austin spoke with much confidence of the outlook for British trade. At last, he said, there were definite signs that the difficulties which have beset this country for many years were diminishing, and that trade and conditions generally were decidedly brighter than they had been for some time.

Given a settled Government and industrial peace he was confident that at the end of next year Britain would not only have regained much of her old industrial prestige but would be in a better and happier position than any country in the world. Sir Herbert alluded with justifiable pride to the growth that had taken place in the business of his own company. While the latest trade statistics, he said, showed that in the past 10 years the total motor-vehicle production in this country increased by 70 per cent, Austin production had increased by not less than 350 per cent. Referring to his recent visit to Paris, Sir Herbert Austin said his Continental agents expressed themselves enthusiastically on the prospects of next year's business; in fact, their only complaint was that they could not get enough cars even at this period of the year, which was usually considered the dead season.

ROVER COMPANY'S ECONOMIES

As was to be expected, in view of the fact that the company in the past year converted a substantial trading loss into a profit, the speeches at yesterday's meeting of the Rover Company were more hopeful. The chairman, Mr. E. B. Harrison, emphasized that it had been a year of reorganization and that the company did not get the full benefit until the latter part of the year. Considerable changes had been made in their 1933 models, and he expressed the view that the fact their programme had been entirely cleared proved changes to be what the public wanted. He was able to say that up to date the cars dispatched and the orders on hand represented one-third of their contemplated programme, compared with one-quarter for the same period last year. As regards the overseas business, during the past year that had formed a satisfactory proportion of their turnover, whereas for a year or two previously the export trade had been negligible. (The orders received from abroad so far this year showed a satisfactory increase over last year.)

The company's last financial year ended on Aug. 5. Mr. H. H. Graham, financial adviser to the company, who also addressed the shareholders, revealed that during the past 12 months the company's overhead expenses, compared with the previous year, had been reduced by no less than 36 per cent, and compared with 1930-31 by over 48 per cent. In actual amount the saving was considerably in excess of £100,000. Much had been accomplished, and he hoped he was right in feeling that the company had turned the corner, but he warned the shareholders against expecting any spectacular results. The company has, of course, a heavy debt balance which must be wiped out before dividend can be resumed.
